HOST: We're gonna study and go home because my feet feel awful... Should've worn my TOMS today. Oh, you don't know TOMS?

HOST: They work to give back to those who've gotten them to where they are today. When you purchase TOMS' super comfy shoes, a portion goes to those who need it and right now, mental health is on the decline in America. I mean, have you seen our grades?

HOST: What'd you get for number 2? Really? ...Anyway, people need help and TOMS is here to help fund access to those resources. Oh, and right now, they're having a sale! Over 100 styles for up to 60% off and that's on top of free shipping on orders over $74.
